THE EVENING BULLETIN

MONDAY, JULY 5, 1886.

Mus Meeting.

The Democrats of Mason County are hereby notified that a mass convention will be held at the court house in Mayville, on Saturday, the 10th day of the present month, at 1 o'clock p.m., to select delegates to represent Mason County in a convention to be held at Lexington, Ky., on the 16th day of the present month, to nominate a candidate for Superior Judge in the Third Superior Court district of Kentucky. A full attendance is requested. EMERY WHITAKER, Chairman County Committee of Mason County.

TIME even up all things. The bill for the relief of Fitz-John Porter has been signed by the President.

The President's loyalty and devotion to the best interests of the country in imposing his veto between the Treasury and reckless legislation will pass unquestioned by all honest citizens. Only partisans bemoan and lobby sympathizers are raising the howl that he is transcending his prerogatives, while the truth is that he represents the convictions of respectable people of both parties when he vetoes the private pension bills that are ground through the Senate and House with such monotonous and tiresome regularity.—Louisville Post.

The grand old ship of Democracy in "The State of Lewis" is riding on tempestuous seas at present with the prospects of a general smash up and wreck in August. The officers despatched the craft, and left it drifting aimlessly about at the mercy of the storm. If the Democrats keep on a little while longer making fools of themselves, they'll wake up some of these days in the "sweet by and by" and find their ship in charge of another crew entirely. Why is it that dissensions can't be kept down? Let's quit our internal strife and harmonize a little more.

CINCINNATI street gas lamps cost $25 per lamp. The New York Gas Light Company lighted its lamps at $12,500 per lamp. Cincinnati pays for street lighting $20,000 per annum, which is $85,000 more than the contract price, $12,000 more than it should be, and $120,000 more than it will be before one year from date.—Cincinnati Telegram.

Mayville has been paying $25 per lamp for years, and would be paid if still, if the Citizens' Gas Light Company hadn't been organized. As it stands, though, the lighting is guaranteed for the next ten years at $20 per lamp a year. The cost of running 133 lamps now is less than the city has for years been paying for 111 only.

The railroad proposition to be voted on in this city next Saturday is simply this: The guarantors want a subscription of $60,000 voted, payable in one, two and three years. "Certificates of indebtedness" are then to be issued by the city to certain citizens representing the guarantors. These certificates are to be used as cash, with which the rights of way can be procured. Upon the completion of the road, the subscription from the county and other sources is to be used in cancelling and redeeming these certificates of indebtedness. If the right of way costs no more than the first estimate, all the certificates will be redeemed, and the city will be out nothing. But if the rights should cost say $10,000 more than the estimate, then that amount would be added to the city's indebtedness.

The Railroad—What Shall Be Done?

The people of Mayville are widely known for their intelligence, liberality and enterprise; from the earliest times they have been remarkable for their energy, sagacity and public spirit; they have always responded to the demand for public improvements, and to every proposition that has promised a great public benefit they have given a hearty and ungrudging support. They are now called upon to repair the errors of their County Court, and to save for the city the subscription of fifty thousand dollars which was recently voted by the county. In deciding upon the proper course, therefore, there are but few points to be considered:

1. Before the railroad can be built, money must be furnished to secure the rights of way; and, as delay is dangerous and expensive, the money must be furnished at once. No money, no rights of way; no rights of way, no road.

2. As the community cannot derive any benefit from the county subscription until the road is complete, it is very wisely proposed that the city make the county subscription good by advancing a sufficient sum to secure the rights of way at once, and insure the completion of the road within eight months or a year.

3. Sixty thousand dollars will cover this demand, and at the same time meet any possible or anticipated deficiency that may occur. When the road shall be completed, the county subscription will be due, and the city will be repaid. In the meantime, the rate of taxation will not be increased one cent.

THE LIBERALS HOPEFUL.

RESULT OF THE PARLIAMENTARY ELECTIONS COMING IN.

Conservatives Away in the Lead. But Their Gains are Said to be Fictitious By the Opposition—Parcell Sanguine of Success—Latest Election Returns.

LONDON, July 5.—Although the election returns thus far reported show the Conservatives to be a long way ahead, the Ministerialists are not dismayed. They claim that the advantage which the Tories now have is wholly fictitious, as the seats uncontested are those in a fight for which the Conservatives would be in a hopeless minority on any issue. The Tories led for several days last November, and will doubtless do so in the present struggle, but the reports from the counties received at the Liberal central offices, show the loyalty of the Liberal electors to be unshaken.

An analysis of the voting at Colchester has caused a feeling of alarm in Tory ranks, as a great many Liberal Unionists, instead of adhering to the compact to vote the Tory ticket, had voted the Unionist candidate, who came in with a majority of 1,000. It is expected that with anything like a general observance Mr. Gladstone's victory is assured, as a gain of only fifteen seats is required to neutralize the majority adverse to Home Rule.

Mr. Gladstone's victory will give the government a working majority of ten. The Unionists are very sanguine and profess to be able to place the Nationalist vote in such a way that the premiers will go into the next parliament with a majority of twenty.

Fall Mall Gazette on the Election.

LONDON, July 5.—The Fall Mall Gazette thus affirms: "The results of the parliamentary election returns of yesterday show that the Irish party in England has so far failed to work the wonders promised by the Nationalists. Mr. J. P. O'Connor recently declared that the Irish vote in England was a decisive factor, but, judging from the results of yesterday's pollings his assertion does not hold good. Out of seventeen districts in which elections were held yesterday, and the Irish were supposed to be numerically strong, the net result was that the Irish voters turned out in such places only in favor of the Unionists."

Connexions of Great Railroads.

SANTA FE, N. M., July 5.—The building of the Texas, Santa Fe & Northern road from here to El Paso, on the Denver & Rio Grande, has been arranged here. The road will be forty miles long and will connect the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe with the Denver & Rio Grande, and will be built by the Southern Trust company of New York.

Connexions of Great Railroads.

LONDON, July 5.—The following Parliamentary candidates have been elected without opposition: Dr. Fox, for the Tullamore division of Kings county; Mr. P. MacDonald, for Sligo; Mr. J. Derry, for the western division of Mayo; Mr. J. Nolan, for south Roscommon; Mr. J. C. O'Farrell, for Cork, who professes to be a working man and who claims that he and his wife are actually at work in the third round.

Five More Schooners Sunk.

HALIFAX, July 5.—A dispatch from Shelburne says the schooners, George W. Cushing, Jewell master, and C. B. Harrington, Frerick master, both of Portland, Me., have been captured by the collector of customs there for an offense similar to that of the schooner City Point, of delay in reporting to the custom house.

Five Round Grove Contest.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., July 5.—Pat Kilian and James C. Daly, of New York, met at the Theatre Comique in a five round contest, with no round gloves. Kilian was sent home by the collector of customs there for an offense similar to that of the schooner City Point, of delay in reporting to the custom house.

Sullivan-Mitchell Fight Over.

NEW YORK, July 5.—The Sullivan-Mitchell fight at the polo grounds, Monday night, is declared off on account of police interference. Sullivan said that the match would never come off, either in New York or Pittsburg, as soon as masters could be arranged.

Parcellite Re-elected.

LONDON, July 5.—Mr. Thomas J. Condon, Parcellite for the Eastern division of Tipperary, and Mr. Gill, Parcellite for one of the divisions of Limerick, have been re-elected without opposition.

SAVED HIS SISTER.

Senator Pugh's Daughter Rescued by Force from a Cruel Husband.

OMAHA, Neb., July 5.—Two years ago the daughter of Senator Pugh of Alabama, who was a worthless fellow, but also a tyrant. She and her husband came to Omaha and resided here some months, and then moved to Council Bluffs, Iowa.

During the time they lived in Omaha and Council Bluffs, the husband treated her cruelly and kept her in destitute circumstances, and also prevented her by force and confinement from communicating with her father. A few days ago the wife by accident met Dr. King, of Council Bluffs, to whom she told her story and appealed for assistance. Senator Wright telephoned to Senator Pugh, who had been unable all this time to find any trace of the whereabouts of his daughter.

The result was that young Mr. Pugh, the wife's brother, arrived in Council Bluffs, and, driving to the house, obtained admittance to the house with a drawn revolver. He advanced on his sister's husband, threatening to kill him. The husband escaped out of the kitchen. The son of Dr. King, Young Pugh took his sister and her little child and departed for Atlanta.

The Mormon Method.

WHEELING, W. Va., July 5.—Special from Simpson states that Mrs. Belle Frum, a woman something over thirty years old, and a rather good looking one, had eloped with a Mormon named Vernon, who has been disseminating his opinions among the neighborhood for some time, leaving a husband and three children. Vernon has a very unsavory reputation, but notwithstanding this fact, he has succeeded in securing a position for Mormonism.

The result is that young Mr. Pugh, the wife's brother, arrived in Council Bluffs, and, driving to the house, obtained admittance to the house with a drawn revolver. He advanced on his sister's husband, threatening to kill him.

The husband escaped out of the kitchen.

Enterprise of the Small Hoodlum.
When the enterprising small hoodlum says: "Give me a flower," and is rewarded with a rose, he is not being a fool. He is being a fool, but does not carelessly preserve his flower with an appreciation of its refining influence in his humble home. He runs to the next street, holds up his trophy, and calls out to the next passer-by: "Want a flower?" One out."

In Oregon many deer are being killed for sport, no use whatever being made of this venison.

Inhuman Treatment.

ELIZABETH, W. Va., July 5.—The citizens of St. John's, Goodwin, W. Va., have been aroused to indignation by the attempt of a mob to kill a well known farmer named Edward Backers. A vigilance committee has been formed with the object of lynching C. R. and J. W. Peeler, the leaders of the mob, and given information to the authorities of a brutal assault by the Farrers upon a farmer named Farrell. For this the mob under the lead of the brothers Peeler, and including a boy, beat, kicked, and threw him over. The fire broke both his legs and inflicted other hurts. The unfortunate man lay among the rocks for three days and nights before he was discovered by his friends; hence the threats of lynching. Should Backers die serious trouble is expected.

Found Dead in His Room.

CHICAGO, July 5.—Richard Jones was found dead in his room at the Albin house, early this morning. He was at one time auditor general of the Credit Valley railroad in Canada, and was up to the time of his death employed by an insurance agent in the United States.

He was about forty years of age, an Englishman and came here from Canada some months ago.

He was of superior education and address, and was a capable mathematician.

He was a native of Scotland, and had been brought up in the service of a large shipping firm.

He was a member of the Tus Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad Company is now running through trains to Old Point Comfort and Newport News. Pullman coaches. Kentucky Central connected with these trains at Paris and Lexington.

NEAR Carlisle the other day, a farm house was struck by lightning, one corner being demolished. Luckily, the family was away from home, but a dog and six chickens under one of the porches were killed.

CLARK County's crop of wheat is a fine one. Threshing has begun, and some fields are yielding over thirty bushels to the acre. The first of the new crop was delivered at Winchester Friday, and was sold at sixty-five cents.

A PROMINENT Southern man is reported as saying: "You have no idea how the President's marriage has helped Cleveland in the South. Why, the old fellows in my country have gone wild about it and it has gained him at least 50,000 votes so far, and still increasing."

The wheat crop along the Kentucky Central, between Summit and Johnson Junction, is certainly one of the finest ever grown. Most of it is in the shock and threshing has already commenced. Other crops are growing finely, and the prospects are that the farmers will be blessed with an abundant harvest.

JOHN FARLEY, who resides on Fifth street, caught a fox near his residence yesterday. The animal is very likely a pet one that has wandered from its home.

ALICE WAUGH, a poor but industrious farmer of Nicholas County, was chasing a negro thief through Carlisle the other day, and when about to grasp his man, fell from his horse in a fit of excitement. Three hours later he was a corpse, death resulting from congestion of the brain.

BACCHUS, stitches in the side, indurations and soreness of the bowels, are symptoms of a disordered state of the digestive and assimilative organs, which can be promptly and thoroughly corrected by the use of Ayer's Cathartic Pills. As dinner pills, and as aids to digestion, they have no equal. They cure constipation.

A. M. BOWLING has been taken to the penitentiary to serve twenty-one years for murdering the Marshal of Mt. Sterling a few years ago. He was very anxious to leave the jail at Lexington, and went away real mad because they would let him remain one day longer. It's a pity about these desperados and murderers that they can't have their own way!

Tax following preamble and resolution were adopted unanimously by the Baptist Church, Sunday July 4th:

WHEREAS, Arrangements for the rest of a room for church services had already been made, when we received the kind offer by the Central Presbyterian Church, of the use of their church for our Thursday evening services.

Resolved, That while we are compelled to decline the kind offer, we hereby tender to that church our heartiest thanks for this exhibition of christian courtesy and love.

SOME rowdies tore down the Chinese laundryman, Sam Lee's, sign last night, and smashed out one or two of his windows. The police should ferret the guilty parties out and see that they are punished. If the parties who are at the bottom of this rowdyism think they can run the Chinaman out of town by such means, they will find themselves badly mistaken.

It will create sympathy for him and give him a "boom." As an evidence of this, a fund was raised in a few minutes this morning to replace the sign and glass.

THE following officers elected for the ensuing term were duly installed by W. N. Rudy, D. D. G. C., at the last stated meeting of Limehouse Lodge No. 36, K. of P.:

A. M. —John T. Allison.
